Dec. 25, 1923.

Mrs. Walter Gray Crump,
837 Madison Ave.,
New York City.

Dear Mrs. Crump:

Yours of the 17th just received. I will mail the other copies at once.

As you failed to send a card to put with the Book for Mrs. Marshall O. Terry, I will have one typewritten to enclose with the Book and forward without delay, as I suppose this would be your wish in the matter.

Your own copies will go to you by the same mail as this letter.

Sincerely Yours,
